

Your ad forge is warming up.

Thank you for your order. Here is exactly what happens next. Keep this page, it is your delivery contract.

1 We email you within 2 hours

Your brief form arrives at the email address on this purchase. If nothing lands within 2 hours, check spam for a message from HookForge.

2 You send the brief (10 minutes)

Reply with: your product link, 3 or more product photos, your target customer in one sentence, and any angle you want us to lean into. Optional: links to 2 ads you like.

3 The 48-hour clock starts

Delivery countdown begins the moment your complete brief lands in our inbox. Full Funnel orders run on a 72-hour clock.

4 Delivery

You receive a download link with your ads as MP4 files (9:16, captions burned in), static images where included, and your ad copy bank. Commercial license transfers to you in full on delivery.

REVISIONS

Test Matrix includes 1 revision round and Full Funnel includes 2, on the creatives you pick. Send revision notes within 7 days of delivery.

GUARANTEE

If we miss the delivery window, you get a full refund. No forms, no questions.

AI DISCLOSURE

Every HookForge deliverable is AI-produced and human-directed. Deliverables are labeled as AI-generated content, matching current ad platform disclosure requirements.
